

NONNO LANCIA - PURVEYORS OF THE FINEST MEATS AND CHEESES

Nonno Lancia is a family business based in Florence. It has limited supply to the UK because only a few fine Italian restaurants and deli have sought them out for their premium product.

Finest Things Italian is delighted to be involved in 'spreading the word' about this very special Italian company and creating direct supply lines for new hotels, restaurants and other fine establishments to source these specialist foods.

You can check out the range of meats and cheeses on line at www.nonnolancia.it

We will promote local stockists as they come on board and feature offers within our newsletter and shop from time to time.
